GENERAL ORDER.

CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA, }
NAVY DEPARTMENT, }
Richmond, November 22, 1862. }

I.—The following articles are substituted for articles 2 and 3 of Chapter II. of the Navy Regulations, approved April 29, 1862:

For Article 2. General Military Command.

Of the Commission and Warrant Officers, the following only shall exercise general military command, and in the order in which they are placed:

Admiral.
Flag Officer.
Captain.
Commander.
Lieutenant Commanding.
First Lieutenant.
Second Lieutenant.
Lieutenant for the War.
Master.
Passed Midshipman.
Midshipman.
Boatswain.
Gunner.
Master's Mate, if warranted.

For Article 3. Officers restricted in their right to command.

The other Commission and Warrant Officers shall be restricted in their right to command to their own respective corps, unless especially extended. They are as follows:

Surgeon.
Paymaster.
Chief Engineer.
Naval Constructor.
Secretary to Commander-in-Chief.
Passed Assistant Surgeon.
Assistant Paymaster.
First Assistant Engineer.
Assistant Surgeon.
Second Assistant Engineer.
Third Assistant Engineer.
Carpenter.
Sailmaker.

II.—In determining the relative and assimilated rank of officers who resigned from the navy of the United States to take service in the navy of the Confederate States, reference will be had to the date of commissions held by them in the navy of the United States.

III.—Commissions for the war in any grade of the Navy shall confer rank from the date of such commission.

IV.—Naval Constructors will take rank and precedence with Surgeons, Paymasters and Chief Engineers, according to date of commission.

V.—The following amendments are ordered in Articles 10, 12, 13 and 14 of Chapter II :

Article 10. Before the words Lieutenants on the last line, insert the word "all," and strike out the words "and with Masters."

Article 12 is expunged.

Article 13. In the title of the Article and in the first line, substitute the word "second" for the word "first;" and in last line add after the word "Midshipman," the words "next after Master."

Article 14. In the title of the Article and in the first line, strike out the words "second and."

VI.—The following changes are ordered in the uniform :

Admirals will wear one stripe in addition to the number worn by Flag Officers on the sleeve, and one star additional in shoulder strap and cap ornament.

Lieutenants Commanding will wear one stripe in addition to the number worn by First Lieutenants on the sleeve.

First Lieutenants will wear the uniform prescribed for Lieutenants.

Second Lieutenants will wear the same uniform as First Lieutenants, except the star in the shoulder strap.

Lieutenants for the war the same as Second Lieutenants.

Naval Constructors will wear the same uniform as Chief Engineers, substituting buff in the ground of the shoulder strap for dark blue, and the letter "C" in the cap ornament for the letter "E."

First Assistant Engineers will wear the same uniform as Passed Assistant Surgeons, except that the ground of the shoulder strap shall be dark blue.

Second Assistant Engineers will wear the same uniform as Assistant Surgeons, except that the ground of the shoulder strap shall be dark blue.

S. R. MALLORY,
Sec'y of the Navy.

SEC. 3. In computing the length of service of such officers as were attached to the navy of the United States, but who have resigned, and have been or may be received into the service of the Confederate States, their period of service in the navy of the United States shall be included, and no service shall be regarded as sea service in the purview of said act but such as shall be actually performed at sea, and in vessels employed by authority of law.

SEC. 4. The pay of seamen of the navy shall be determined by the President, and may be altered by him from time to time as circumstances may require.

SEC. 5. There shall be a corps of marines, to consist of one major, one quartermaster, one paymaster, one adjutant, one sergeant-major, one quartermaster-sergeant, and six companies; each company to consist of one captain, one first and one second lieutenant, four sergeants, four corporals, one hundred men and two musicians; and the pay and allowances of the officers and enlisted men shall be the same as that of the officers and enlisted men of like grade in the infantry of the army, except that the ration of the enlisted marines shall be the ration allowed by law to seamen.

SEC. 6. The following officers shall be attached to the Navy Department, to wit: An officer, not below the grade of commander, who shall be charged with the purchase or preparation of ordnance, ordnance stores and supplies and equipments, and with hydrography, and with such other duties as the Secretary of the Navy may from time to time assign to him; an officer not below the grade of lieutenant, to be designated as the officer of orders and detail, who shall, under the orders of the Secretary of the Navy, prepare and issue all orders and details for service, and who shall also, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, have charge of all matters and things connected with courts-martial and courts of inquiry, and with the custody of all records and papers thereunto appertaining, and perform such other duties relating to the personnel of the navy as the Secretary may from time to time direct; a surgeon or an assistant surgeon, who shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, make all purchases of medicines and medical supplies for the navy, and perform such other duties appertaining to the medical department as the Secretary may from time to time direct; a paymaster, who shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, make all contracts for or purchases of provisions, clothing and coal for the use of the navy, and perform such other duties as the Secretary may direct. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to appoint one clerk to aid each of the above officers in the discharge of his duties, whose annual salary shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars each; but the officers therein detailed for duty shall receive no compensation for their services beyond their regular pay as on other duty.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the quartermaster of the marine corps to visit the different posts where portions of the corps may be stationed, as often as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to prepare and publish regulations for the general government of all persons connected with or employed in the naval service, which regulations shall take effect as soon as they shall be approved by the President and published.

SEC. 9. All laws of the United States heretofore enacted for the government of the officers, seamen and marines of the navy of the United States, that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby adopted and applied to the officers, seamen and marines of the navy of the Confederate States.

SEC. 10. The President may determine the relative and assimilated rank which officers of the navy shall hold toward those of the army.

Approved, March 16, 1861.

[No. 90.]

AN ACT

Supplementary to an act entitled "An act to organize the Navy."

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That in case officers who were formerly attached to the navy of the United States, but had resigned in consequence of the secession of any one, or of all of the Confederate States, should receive appointments in the navy of the Confederate States, the President is authorized to affix to their commissions such dates as may be necessary to secure to them the same relative position that they held in the former service.

Approved, March 16, 1861.

[No. 145.]

AN ACT

Amendatory of an act to provide for the organization of the Navy.

SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That from and after the passage of this act, the corps of marines shall consist of one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, one major, one quartermaster with the rank of major, one paymaster with the rank of major, one adjutant with the rank of major, one sergeant-major, one quartermaster-sergeant, ten captains, ten first lieutenants, twenty second lieutenants, forty sergeants, forty corporals, and eight hundred and forty privates, ten drummers and ten fifers and two musicians.

SEC. 2. The pay and emoluments of the officers and enlisted men shall be the same as that of the officers and enlisted men of like grade in the infantry of the army, except that the paymaster and the adjutant shall receive the same pay as the quartermaster, and the adjutant shall be taken from the captains and subalterns of the corps and separated from the line. The rations of enlisted marines shall be the rations allowed by law to seamen. All acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, May 20, 1861.

[No. 146.]

AN ACT

To amend an act to provide for the organization of the Navy, approved March sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to nominate, by and with the advice and consent of Congress, to appoint all officers of the navy of the United States, who have resigned, or may hereafter resign their commissions on account of the secession of any or all of the Confederate States, and who may be fit for active service, to the same rank and position in the navy of the Confederate States which they held in that of the United States: Provided, however, That no officer shall be so appointed who may at any time have committed any act of hostility against the Confederate States, or any one thereof.

SEC. 2. That the President be authorized to assign officers of the navy to any duty connected with the defence of the country, and suitable to their rank, which he may deem proper.

SEC. 3. That the President be authorized to appoint six assistant paymasters of the navy, each to receive a salary of one thousand dollars when employed at sea, and seven hundred dollars when not thus employed; and all paymasters of the navy shall be taken from the grade of assistant paymasters.

Approved, May 20, 1861.

[No. 323.]

AN ACT

To authorize the President to confer temporary rank and command on officers of the navy doing duty with troops.

SECTION 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to confer on any officer of the navy ordered to do duty on shore with troops, such temporary military rank and command, and with such limitations and restrictions as he may deem proper.

SEC. 2. Any officer of the navy on whom military rank and command shall be conferred, in virtue of the foregoing section, shall retain his rank in the navy, and shall be entitled only to the same pay and emoluments that he would have received if no such rank and command had been conferred on him.

Approved, December 24, 1861.

AN ACT

To authorize the appointment of additional officers of the navy.

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to appoint the following officers of the navy, in addition to those heretofore authorized, to wit: two captains; five commanders; fifty lieutenants; ten assistant paymasters, and thirty assistant surgeons; said appointments to be made from the navy and from civil life, as the President may see fit, and to terminate at the end of the war.

Approved, December 24, 1861.

AN ACT

To authorize the Secretary of the Navy to give a bounty to all persons enlisted as seamen who enlist for three years or for the war.

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to give a bounty of fifty dollars to all persons enlisted as seamen, who shall enlist for three years or for the war. And the provisions of this act shall, in like manner, extend to all seamen heretofore enlisted who will extend the term of their enlistment to three years or for the war, said bounty to be paid at the time of said enlistment.

Approved, January 16, 1862.

[No. 355.]

AN ACT

Supplementary to an act entitled "An act to authorize the appointment of additional officers of the navy," approved December twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President is authorized to appoint officers of the regular navy, to any higher grade under the act above mentioned, without prejudice to their position under their original appointment.

Approved, January 16, 1862.

[No. 362.]

AN ACT

To amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the navy, approved March sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and for other purposes."
